Creating a culture of vocation... WE EACH HAVE A VOCATION - the thing to do is to answer the call. "We each have something to give." (Dorothy Day)

From the Pastor:

We welcome Sister Carol Daul, SA to our parishes this weekend. She will be making the Propagation of the Faith Mission Cooperative Appeal. Sister is a Franciscan Sister of the Atonement and we are delighted she can be with us for this important collection. Please be as generous as you can be.

The restoration work on the exterior of St. James continues. Lupini Construction reports that they have completed about 70% of the First Phase. As you remember, this is the most extensive and most expensive Phase at about $250,000. The only recent setback has been some complications with the repair of the turret by the handicap ramp. After a meeting with an engineer who specializes in the preservation of historic buildings, it seems that this turret is in poor condition. The inner brick wythe which supports the concrete has collapsed in portions of the turret. This northwest turret will require removal of the concrete at the top and mid level of the turret and rebuilding the masonry. The other 3 turrets are in better condition and will only need an anchoring system to stabilize them. Lupini will provide us with cost proposals for the additional anchor system at the 3 turrets and the rebuilding of the northwest turret. Obviously, this is not the news I wanted to receive about the exterior renovation but we have to make the proper renovations now so that the next generation will have a beautiful church to worship in.

The Interior Renovation Committee met last week and we took a field trip to St. Peter's Church, Lowville. That church was recently repainted. As a result of the trip there, I think we are close to choosing the colors for painting the interior of St. James. Also, the decision has been made to change the colors of the pillars in the church. Another revelation has been the discovery that the side panels of the church depicting the faux marble effect are actually covering the original wainscoting. We are presently trying to ascertain the condition of that original wainscoting and then proceed from there. Our next meeting will be August 17.

Don't forget that the Second Annual Parish Picnic for St. James and St. Mary's is fast approaching - Sunday, August 27 at 12 noon in front of St. James Church. Just gather up your family and bring your favorite dish to pass. We will provide the beverages, meat and the tableware. I have already begun to prepare my favorite dish to pass - I hope the parishioners like peanut butter and jelly sandwiches! We are planning a children's program again this year. An incredible magician will be here to entertain the children (and adults). He was scheduled last year but had to cancel at the last minute. Apparently he doesn't perform during monsoon rain storms. In one of his routines, he has promised to make the pastor disappear. There will be great rejoicing on the streets of Carthage!

Franciscan Sisters of the Atonement Appeal for Missions at Home and Abroad

The Franciscan Sisters of the Atonement were founded in 1898 by Sister Lurana Mary White at Graymoor near Garrison, NY, as a missionary congregation dedicated to serving God's poor and striving for the unity of all God's people.

Episcopalian in origin, the Church Unity Octave was established by its Founders in 1908. The community itself was received into the Catholic Church in 1909, and 100 years later. Its ecumenical ministry continues to include the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity in January, a world-wide observance.

In the United States and Canada, the Sisters are found in inner cities and in rural areas where their ministries may include religious education, pastoral outreach, hospital chaplaincy, social services, and community development programs among the marginalized and multi-cultural populations they serve. Overseas, they are found in Brazil, Japan, Italy, Canada and the Philippines.

In many of these places, the people are unable to either partially or totally support the Sisters who work among them. They depend, therefore, on the support of the donations they collect from year to year in the parishes assigned to them by the (Arch) Diocesan Office of the Propagation of the Faith.

A Franciscan Sister of the Atonement, Sister Carol Daul, S.A. has been assigned to our parish and will be here to speak to you this weekend. Please be as generous as you can both by your prayers and with your financial support of their ministries.
