Jubilee 2025
Pilgrims of Hope

Pope Francis Jubilee 2025

Many wonder why 2025 is a Jubilee year for Catholics. Pope Francis called this Catholic Jubilee 2025 to celebrate hope and invite Catholics worldwide to deepen their faith. Because it marks the 1,700th anniversary of the First Council of Nicaea, Jubilee 2025 also celebrates the fundamental Christian truth of the Incarnation, that Jesus is both true God and true man, a teaching always believed in the early Church but dogmatically defined at the Council to combat the Arian heresy.

"May the light of Christian hope illumine every man and woman, as a message of God's love addressed to all!" —Pope Francis Occasionally, a pope may declare an Extraordinary Jubilee, as Pope Francis did with the Jubilee of Mercy in 2015-2016. These are called to address specific themes or needs within the Church. Both types of Jubilees offer opportunities for pilgrimage, indulgences, and spiritual growth.....

Augustinian Academy - Thanks to a generous Safe Schools Endeavor of the Northern New York Community Foundation Grant, we can bring two programs to the students of Augustinian Academy. Our first program will be February 25th at 1:00 in the school gym. The Omegaman and Friends Program has a strong emphasis on character education, inspiration and hope for our students and staff. The assembly will inspire the students to BE A H.E.R.O. - Help Everyone to Respect Others. This is a fantastic opportunity to reinforce Augustinian Academy's commitment to create a positive and safe learning environment for everyone. We welcome you to join us for this fun-filled and exciting presentation by Omegaman!

Religious Education - Joanne Lazore teaches St. James and St. Mary's Religious Education Program for 1st grade and up, from 6:00-7:15pm on Sunday evening at Augustinian Academy School. Classes began October 27, at 6:00pm, but it is not too late to register. Please complete a registration form and submit it to Augustinian Academy. Registration forms are available in the back of church, at the Rectory Office, or at the Augustinian Academy Office, and on the Academy Facebook page. Registration can also be completed on the first day of class.

SPIRITUALITY

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Luke 6:23ab

R. Alleluia, alleluia.
 Rejoice and be glad;
 your reward will be great in heaven.
 R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 6:17, 20-26; L78C

Jesus came down with the Twelve
 and stood on a stretch of level ground with a great crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon.

And raising his eyes toward his disciples he said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
 for the kingdom of God is yours.
 Blessed are you who are now hungry,
 for you will be satisfied.
 Blessed are you who are now weeping,
 for you will laugh.
 Blessed are you when people hate you,
 and when they exclude and insult
 you,
 and denounce your name as evil
 on account of the Son of Man.

Rejoice and leap for joy on that day!
 Behold, your reward will be great in heaven.

For their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way.

But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

Woe to you who are filled now,
 for you will be hungry.

Woe to you who laugh now,
 for you will grieve and weep.

Woe to you when all speak well of you,
 for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way.”

Reflecting on the Gospel

About 1.4 billion people in the world live on $1.25 or less per day. The majority of poor people worldwide are women. Their opportunities for education are fewer, and their earnings still lag far behind those of their male counterparts. Care of home and children go uncompensated. How can it be that Jesus would pronounce blessed those who struggle against such poverty?

Biblical scholars point out that the Greek word makarios, like the Hebrew ‘ashrê, meaning “blessed,” does not confer blessing but recognizes an existing state of happiness. This happiness is something inherent in God, and when humans experience blessedness, it flows from relationship with God. In biblical tradition, poverty is never an indicator of blessedness; it is always regarded as evil. What can Jesus mean by stating the opposite?

In the Gospel of Luke, references to the poor are very frequent. Scholars estimate that 25 percent of people in Roman Palestine were desperately poor. Two concrete individual characters put faces on this mass of struggling humanity: the ulcer-ridden beggar Lazarus, lying at the rich man’s gate (16:19-31), and the widow who put “her whole livelihood,” two small coins, into the temple treasury (21:1-4).

Whenever Jesus speaks about such people, however, he addresses his words to disciples who are not among the most destitute. They are the ones who have the means to be agents of divine blessing to those who are needy. His invitation to disciples is to embrace some form of being poor, but not destitution, as an essential aspect of their commitment to Jesus. Luke shows many options for how to respond to this call to embrace poverty. Some of the fishermen and a tax collector leave behind everything to follow Jesus (5:11, 28). Others, like Zacchaeus, give half their possessions to the poor (19:8). Many of the women put their monetary resources at the service of Jesus’s mission (8:1-3). Some, like Mary, the mother of John Mark, opened their homes for the gatherings of the community (Acts 12:12). There was also the practice of pooling everyone’s resources and then each taking according to their need (Acts 2:44; 4:32). The only thing that was not an option was to hoard for oneself, like the rich ruler (Luke 18:18-30), or to lie to the community about one’s possessions, as the tragic story of Ananias and Sapphira shows (Acts 5:1-11).

The blessedness that Jesus holds up is the happiness of those who are being liberated from their desperate poverty already in the here and now, a foretaste of the final elimination of all want in the fullness of the reign of God. It is not a wish for future reward for an abstract, unknown group of “the poor” who suffer in the present, but a concrete possibility when the needs of real people are known and the resources are shared in community.

This could be a good time to renew our efforts at becoming agents of blessedness through our prayer for those who are in need, fasting in solidarity with those who are hungry not by choice, and almsgiving to those who are destitute.

Augustinian Academy's Annual Gala:

Retro Rewind: An 80's Night to Remember!

A picture is worth a thousand words! That is certainly the case with the collage below! Our Gala was a night to remember in the best of decades—the 80's! It was a time of great music, jumpsuits, big hair, leg warmers, mullets and lots of color! And as you can see, those that attended understood the assignment!

I will let the pictures do the talking, but I want echo Talitha's words of gratitude in this bulletin to all of you that helped or donated in any way. And especially to Talitha and Tom for the initiative, creativity and time in bringing this important fund-raiser for Augustinian Academy to fruition every year. With the loss of a major grant, the looming Diocesan lawsuits, and the never-ending repairs, your support means more now than ever. So many of you have stepped up to the plate and give all that you can. I thank God for all of you and the donations of your time, talent and especially prayers that continue to support our school. They say it takes a community to raise a child—and that is even more true when it comes to educating them. God bless all of you—

Sister Suanne

Joe Margrey was our honoree for all of his volunteer services to the Church, school and convent. Many thanks, Joe!

The Ave Maria's were also honored for their hard work and commitment to supporting our church, school and community!

A Heartfelt Thank You for a Successful 21st Annual Gala Event

As we reflect on the incredible fun and fellowship of last weekend's Gala, we want to express our deepest gratitude to the amazing business sponsors who made this event possible. Their unwavering support plays a vital role in helping us serve our community and raise funds for Augustinian Academy. We are truly blessed by their generosity. Please see below for a list of our incredible business sponsors.

A special thank you to Cross-Tracks Archery, the LaPlatney family, and the Kepler family for their generous donations of large raffle items. We also want to extend our heartfelt appreciation to all the businesses and individuals who donated gift cards, wine, and gift baskets. Your contributions mean more to us than words can express. Our silent auction and raffles not only provided fun during the event but also brought in vital funds for our fundraising efforts.

We are incredibly grateful to our Gala planning committee, who devoted countless hours to planning, organizing, and bringing this event to life. Your time, energy, and creativity truly made this event shine, and your dedication to the Academy is beyond measure. This event would not have been possible without your help - thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Lastly, to our parishioners, staff, and school families who attended - we hope you had a blast! Your presence made the event truly special, and we appreciate your support more than you know. Without you, this event wouldn't have been the same. The tracksuits, big hair, and even special one-day-only mullet haircuts brought plenty of smiles and laughter. Thank you for being part of our community and helping us make this event one to remember!
