A Holy Moment

At a recent Knights of Columbus meeting, a report was given regarding the relocation and renovation of the St James Food Pantry. The four-page report involved detailed information on the personnel, expenses and donations that were important to the project's completion. Thankful for the project's completion, I shared with a brother knight that we should recognize those involved in the project's completion; upon that, I received another point of view.

Recently, St James has been circulating the book, “Holy Moments,” by Matthew Kelly. In the book, it states that “we can collaborate with God to create one Holy Moment today” (p84). Completion of the food pantry involved many Holy Moments, which inspired many more Holy Moments far beyond the scope of the Knights of Columbus. It was suggested that, rather than shine the spotlight on those contributing their time, talent and treasure to the completion of the project, we humbly reflect on the ultimate source of the time, talents and treasures needed. Thank God for Holy Moments!

May you be blessed to have the courage and confidence to choose your holy moments for many years to come!

SAVE THE DATE - 1st Holy Communion
