Augustinian Academy School News

June 6, 2021

A special thank you to our St. Joseph Volunteer Organization, SJVO. They have been very creative in finding ways to celebrate the students and staff of Augustinian Academy. Last Friday we celebrated all our volunteers in a special way! A special note of gratitude to Kate Weekley, our SJVO President, for her dedication and leadership! You have made a challenging year better!

Good luck to our fourth & eighth graders as they take the NYS Science Assessment on Monday!

Our Afterschool Program begins a 6-hour Bike Safety Course today. We are grateful to the 4-H Youth Development Educator and Cornell Cooperative Extension for offering this program.

Don't forget the Chicken BBQ on June 19th. Presale tickets are available in the office and at the Rectory!

This week we recognize our fourth and sixth graders. Our fourth graders have been working on self-confidence and striving to do their best. They remind us that we are all gifts from God working together to love and share as Jesus did! Our sixth graders are a quiet group who go about their day doing little things. Like St. Therese the Little Flower, they remind us we can do ordinary things with great love! Both classes remind us we do not have to do big things to make a difference in our lives or the lives of others! Congratulations to our newest saints!

St. Mary's News – June 6, 2021

Blessing Box of food is available daily in front of St. Mary's Church. Enjoy, also, the Little Library with books for all ages.

Slow down driving by the Blessed Mother Shrine, ask her blessing upon you and your family. Frank & Catherine Fazio gave Mary a fresh coat of paint. Matt Fazio keeps the flood light shining on her.

Flowers are popping up on the church & rectory lawns thanks to Biff & Debbie Green.

Flowers are trimming up the yard at the foot of the driveway hill thanks to Terry & Mary Jane Fleming.

St. Mary's Church is open for 9:00am Mass on Wednesday and for daily visits for private prayers.

God bless & be safe.

From the Pastor:

Today is the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Corpus Christi. Today after the 10am Mass we will expose the Blessed Sacrament and there will be quiet adoration and meditation in the Church till 2pm. Can you spend a few minutes with the Lord today?

St. James and St. Mary's have engaged in creative ways to foster worship during COVID. Video-taping permitted many of the faithful to watch the liturgy. As you know, while this has been a great benefit to so many, it can never replace our actual presence at Mass with our parish family. The time has come for Catholics to return to public worship on Sundays. TODAY Bishop LaValley has reinstated the obligation to attend Sunday Mass in the Diocese of Ogdensburg. However, we remember that there are times when this obligation does not apply:

- if an individual struggles with serious health concerns or is physically prevented from worshipping at Mass
- if an individual, because of age or illness, believes that going into public places, including Sunday Mass, would place that person's health, or that of their loved ones in serious peril
- if an individual is sick, has been in contact with someone who has been sick or is caring for a seriously ill person who requires their presence

I urge those who are unable to participate at Mass to make holy the Lord's Day by praying, reflecting on Sacred Scripture and performing works of charity. The Eucharist is the "source and summit" of our Catholic faith. The celebration of the Mass is the center of the life of the Church.

Next Sunday at 10am I will celebrate my LAST Mass at St. James. As difficult as it is, I will say my good-byes to parishioners at the end of Mass.

In honor of St. James' 200th anniversary, we are compiling the parish history from 1977 forward. Any parish organizations that have any information or pictures on how they affected St. James Church, please drop off any hardcopies with the parish secretary or forward to Todd Norrgard @ tnorrgard@hotmail.com with a subject line that reads: "Info for Parish History". Thank you!

Prayer for Strength
 O Christ Jesus,
 when all is darkness
 and we feel our weakness
 and helplessness,
 give us the sense
 of Your Presence,
 Your Love, and Your Strength.

Help us to have perfect trust in Your protecting love
 and strengthening power, so that nothing may frighten or worry us,
 for, living close to You,
 we shall see Your Hand,
 Your Purpose, and Your Will through all things.
 Amen.
