SUPPORT THE CHURCH IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE

RESTORE THE CHURCH BUILD THE FUTURE

Decades ago, the bishops of the United States established a program to aid the Church in Central and Eastern Europe and help it rebuild after decades of communist oppression. The program is funded by an annual collection taken up in dioceses across the United States. That response continues today, even as the rebuilding Church faces the new challenges of war and the mass migration of refugees.

From the beginning of the Russian Federation's invasion of Ukraine in February 2022 and the subsequent war, the Catholic Church has vigorously responded to the ongoing humanitarian catastrophe by offering shelter, food, medicine, and necessities—as well as spiritual support and comfort—to displaced persons and other war victims. Among those leading this charitable response are the consecrated religious sisters and brothers of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church. Whether by providing shelter and basic necessities to internally displaced persons who have fled their homes for safety in other regions of the country, or by helping priests provide pastoral and humanitarian support in areas where the fighting is most heavy, these sisters and brothers have truly showed Christ's mercy to those most in need.

For them, the human suffering of war is compounded by the unique challenges that wartime conditions present for them as consecrated religious. Questions of how religious communities balance ministry to the needy with the sisters and brothers' needs to live their vows of prayer and community under such extraordinary circumstances require thoughtful responses.

Aided by funding from the collection, the Patriarchal Curia of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church gathered sisters, brothers, and their superiors for the spiritual renewal of a pilgrimage as well as formation sessions to address the challenges facing their communities. Your support for the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe is a vital way for you to make a tangible difference in the lives of Catholics in Ukraine and more than 25 other countries in Central and Eastern Europe.

More information about the collection and the range of projects it supports can be found at www.usccb.org/lceee.

RESTAUREMOS LA IGLESIA CONSTRUYAMOS EL FUTURO

Décadas atrás, los obispos en los Estados Unidos crearon un programa para ayudar a la Iglesia en Europa Central y Oriental y contribuir en su reconstrucción después de décadas bajo la opresión del comunismo. El programa es financiado mediante una colecta que se realiza anualmente en las diócesis en los Estados Unidos. Esa respuesta continúa hoy, incluso cuando la Iglesia en reconstrucción enfrenta los nuevos desafíos de una guerra y de una inmigración masiva de refugiados.

Desde el inicio de la invasión de Ucrania por la Federación Rusa, en febrero del 2022, y la subsecuente guerra, la Iglesia Católica ha respondido enérgicamente a la actual catástrofe humanitaria, ofreciendo refugio, alimentos, medicina y artículos de primera necesidad—así como apoyo espiritual y consuelo—a las personas desplazadas y demás víctimas de guerra. Entre aquellos que responden caritativamente están las hermanas y hermanos religiosos consagrados de la Iglesia greco-católica ucraniana. Ya sea ofreciendo refugio y artículos de primera necesidad a las personas desplazadas internas, que han huido de sus hogares a fin de encontrar seguridad en otras regiones del país, o ayudando a los sacerdotes a brindar apoyo pastoral y humanitario en zonas donde la guerra es más intensa, estos hermanos y hermanas están mostrando verdaderamente la misericordia de Cristo a aquellos que más lo necesitan.

Para estos hermanos, el sufrimiento humano de la guerra se ve agravado por los singulares desafíos que las condiciones en tiempos de guerra les presentan a ellos como religiosos consagrados. Los cuestionamientos sobre cómo las comunidades religiosas equilibran su ministerio a los necesitados con las necesidades de los hermanos y hermanas de vivir sus votos de oración y comunidad bajo circunstancias tan extraordinarias, exigen unas respuestas reflexivas.

Ayudada con dineros de la colecta, la Curia Patriarcal de la Iglesia greco-católica ucraniana, reunió a religiosas y religiosos, y a sus superiores, en un peregrinaje como renovación espiritual y llevó a cabo sesiones de capacitación para poder responder a los desafíos que enfrentan sus comunidades. Las contribuciones de ustedes a la Colecta para la Iglesia en Europa Central y Oriental, son vitales para que puedan marcar una diferencia tangible en la vida de los católicos en Ucrania y en más de otros 25 países en Europa Central y Oriental.

Para más información acerca de la colecta y la gama de proyectos que ésta financia, entren a www.usccb.org/fcee.

Food for Thought - 8th Sunday Luke 6:39-45

Good Tree, Good Fruit

Theme: The pure of heart bring forth works of justice.

In the Middle Ages a man was refining gold in a fire-heated pot on a street corner. A little child asked him what he was doing. He said he was removing the impurities that rose to the top as the ore melted. "How will you know when you're done?" the child asked. "When I can see my face perfectly reflected in the gold," the man said.

Application: God purifies our hearts and words so that in looking at them, God can see reflected back the image of the Son. How do we view the role of suffering in our life?

LENT 2025

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

This Jubilee Year, Pope Francis invites you and me to make this Lent our personal journey of hope. He asks us to "pray frequently for the grace of patience, which is both the daughter of hope and at the same time its firm foundation." To hope is to wait for something that has already been given to us: salvation in the infinite love of God, the love that gives flavor to our life and that constitutes the cornerstone on which the world remains standing, despite all the significant challenges ahead caused by our sinfulness. (cf. Spes non Confundit)

To hope is to wait. But I find it difficult to wait for anything. I get antsy when I'm running late, especially when I find myself behind a pokey driver on the road ahead. Perhaps you find it difficult to wait, too. Maybe your spouse is always making you wait. You lose patience with him.

Maybe a loved one suffers from addictions or mental disease and you're losing your patience coping with the difficult behavioral traits. The lines are long at her office and the next doctor's appointment is months away. Sometimes you just want to cancel everything. You're sick of waiting. Or maybe you're losing patience with God who doesn't answer a longstanding prayer. We are just plain tired of waiting. Patience is in very short supply.

This virtue of patience is closely linked to hope. In our fast-paced world, we are used to wanting everything now. Patience has been put to flight by frenetic haste. This leads to anxiety and even gratuitous violence, resulting in more unhappiness. St. Paul often speaks of patience in the context of our need for perseverance and confident trust in God's promises. Patience, one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit, sustains our hope and strengthens it as a virtue and a way of life.

This Lent, let us learn to pray fervently for the grace of patience. Patience and hope must be our constant companions that guide our steps towards the goal of a closer relationship with the Lord. It is that intimate relationship with Jesus that energizes our efforts to become more patient in living the journey of hope enroute to the joy of heaven.

May your journey through Lent 2025 find you savoring the flavor of God's endless love as you encounter the Lord of all hopefulness in the daily challenge to live the virtue of patience.

In Christ our Hope,

Most Reverent Terry R. LaValley
Bishop of Ogdensburg
