From the Pastor:

This is a busy weekend here at St. James and St. Mary's. Today is Mother's Day and the annual Catholic Charities collection is always taken up this weekend. Every dollar you donate to Catholic Charities invests in the health and well-being of members of our community. Your support of Catholic Charities will feed the hungry, house the homeless, provide support for the sick and elderly, support individuals in times of financial and emotional crisis and assure the working poor that they are not going to "fall between the cracks" of support services. Last year Catholic Charities served over 18,000 people in all of its programs and services. Your financial gift touched the lives of your neighbors in all 8 counties of Northern NY. Please be as generous as you can this year.

We salute and honor all of our mothers today – living and deceased. When you arrive for Mass, you will find a Mother's Day prayer card in your pew (there is a picture of a tulip on it!). Please write down the names of your mother – living and deceased – and the cards will be collected AFTER the 2nd collection and they will be brought forward in the offertory procession and we will pray for all our mothers in a special way during the Eucharistic Prayer. After Mass we have a small gift to give to all our mothers.

Today is First Eucharist Day at St. Mary's! Congratulations to all our students who have been working so hard to prepare for this special day. Their names are printed in today's bulletin. We hope they will come often to the altar of the Lord to be spiritually fed.

Bishop LaValley will be here Tuesday evening to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for our young people. Their names are listed in today's bulletin and we congratulate them as they prepare to receive this final Sacrament of Initiation. They have worked very hard to get ready for this important milestone in their spiritual lives.

Don't forget that the ROSARY CRUSADE begins on Friday evening with the celebration of Mass at 5:15pm. The rosary hours follow the Mass until benediction time at 1am. You know the routine better than I do. This is my third Rosary Crusade and I am so excited that I haven't been able to sleep for days. Thanks to Bob Renaud for once again organizing the Crusade so beautifully. We can't wait to see the 2018 painting.

Don't forget the Open House at CAA next Sunday after the 10am Mass. This will be an opportunity for parents (and even parishioners without school age children) to visit the school and see all the good "stuff" going on at the school.

Next Sunday is Pentecost Sunday – the feast of the Holy Spirit and the birthday of our Church. Please wear something red to Mass next weekend. If you don't have anything red to wear, we will provide something for you when you arrive for Mass.

I read this in a spiritual book this week and it is a statement that we all need to be reminded of: "Don't complain about growing old! Some people don't get the privilege!"

Dear Friends in Christ:

Pope Francis' behavior exemplifies faith in action. His declaration of the Year of Families calls on each one of us to live the gospel with a special emphasis and recognition on the family, the Domestic Church. Mercy, Compassion, and the values that we so often associate with being both inclusive and community-minded begin in our families. Catholic Charities, as an agency reflects these gospel values and strives each day to address the many needs of the poor and marginalized of our North Country.

As a community of believers, we can all participate in Christ's mission of love and hope; charity is an essential component of this mission and you can help through providing a generous gift. Your donation can make a vital difference in the lives of individuals and families who struggle with unintended economic hardship. Catholic Charities also help those with emotional issues and provides counseling to families that want to more effectively communicate with one another. These people are not strangers but in so many cases are your neighbors, friends, co-workers and even family members who have knocked on Catholic Charities and asked for help.

Catholic Charities depends on your financial support to continue reaching out to those who need us. Our programs and services express our Christian and Catholic priorities. As your Bishop and chairperson of the Board of Trustees of Catholic Charities, I am graciously asking you to consider making a generous gift to this wonderful organization.

The Mother's Day Annual Appeal for Catholic Charities will take place in all our parishes on the weekend of May 13, 2018. Thank you for generosity and your support

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Terry R. LaValley
Bishop of Ogdensburg
