Augustinian Academy School News

November 11, 2018

Halloween was a very special time at CAA. We are grateful to our three judges, who joined in the fun of coming in costume as a trio of witches. We are grateful to Michelle Buckingham, Tammy Charette, and Nicky Murphy for sharing their time with us. The costume winners were Savannah Kimball, Koen Nyitray, Alexandra Petro, Nicholas Jones, Brigid Bracy, Cheyanne Walseman, Ali Zajac, Jolynn Ulrich, Henry Blickhahn, Madilyn & Galen Johnson, and Mackenzie Major. A very special thank you to Joanne & Mike Sligar who graciously donated the prizes in memory of their son, Christopher, who loved Halloween.

We send thanks to Jennifer & Chuck Richards and Old McDonald's Farm for the pumpkins for Pumpkin BINGO. They were beautiful, and every family took home at least one pumpkin!

We are very proud of our new Altar Servers who have been working with Mr. Margrey. They have begun serving at Masses. Our new servers are Makayla Aston, Ali & Lizzie Zajac, Elijah Bush, Kamden Altmire, and Anna Clarkson.

Congratulations to our November Saints: Noah James, Juliette Conklin, Aiden Dillenback, Elek Nyitray, Ryder Walseman, and Jason Viveiros. They are wonderful role models for their classmates.

Thank you to our Veterans and family members who joined us for lunch last Friday. We are truly blessed! No school at CAA on Monday to celebrate Veterans' Day.

We welcome Karen Donahue, the Assistant Superintendent of School for the Diocese of Ogdensburg. She will spend the day with us on Wednesday!

My dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

I am writing to address an important matter: the release of the names of priests removed from ministry according to the provisions of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People. In the past, we have declined to publicize the names of these individuals for many reasons, including due process questions. While there are strong arguments for releasing the names and strong arguments for not releasing the names, recent controversies in the Church make it necessary for us to now release the names.

The recent controversies and scandals have produced righteous anger, discouragement and frustration among the people of God. Increasingly, the faithful have called for the release of the names of those removed from ministry under the Charter. The list of names will be posted on our diocesan website.

I know the release of names will cause pain for those on the list, their families, former parishioners and friends. There will be a need for compassion and understanding among all of us. While our main concern is the safety of our young people and helping victims find healing and peace, we must also strive to uphold the dignity of those removed from ministry. Mercy and reconciliation are central to our mission as the Church of Jesus Christ.

We are facing great challenges in our Church. However, we remain Christ-led, Christ-fed and Hope-filled. We continue to trust in the Lord's presence among us and follow His way. As we face adversity, we remain faithful to our call and do the work the Lord gives to us. We are to fight the good fight, run the good race and keep the faith, to paraphrase St. Paul. Let us pray for and encourage one another.

Wishing God's blessings to you and your loved ones, I am

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Terry R. LaValley
Bishop of Ogdensburg

From the Pastor:

Today is Stewardship Sunday. Please read Bishop LaValley's fine letter printed in today's bulletin. Today you will be thrilled to know that I will devote much of my homily time reflecting on the financial status of both St. James and St. Mary's. A pastor is required to give a financial statement to his parishioners at least once a year and it is done on Stewardship Sunday. You will find a summary of each parish's annual Financial Report in today's bulletin.

It is hard to believe that the Season of Advent is right around the corner. Don't forget that this weekend the members of the St. James Ave Maria Circle will take orders for Advent Wreaths for your home. Every home should have an Advent Wreath.

Again this year the Village Ecumenical Ministries will host their Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service. It will be held on Monday, November 19 at 7pm at Grace Episcopal Church, 421 State St., Carthage. Everyone is welcome to join us in thanking God for all the blessings and challenges that are sent our way. Refreshments will be served. I am hoping some parishioners from St. James and St. Mary's will join me at this important service.

I have scheduled an important meeting of ALL greeters and ushers from St. James and St. Mary's: Tuesday, November 20 at 7pm in the SJ Community Room. In light of the horrific mass shooting at a Pittsburgh Synagogue, I would like to talk about security in our churches. There are other important matters to discuss also. PLEASE plan to attend if you are a greeter or usher at either church.

With the cold and flu season upon us and because the pastor suffers from germ-phobia, we will dispense with the Handshake of Peace for the next few months. In place of the Sign of Peace, we will pray for peace in our hearts, our homes, our neighborhoods and in the World! We surely need peace in the crazy world we live in, especially right now.

Today is Veterans Day! We pray for all our veterans – living and deceased – and for all our military families, especially those serving our country overseas. Tomorrow is a Federal Holiday and both CAA and the parish office will be closed.

Seen a bumper sticker recently: “ Opportunity knocks once; temptation bangs on your door forever!”

The Ladies of the AVE Maria Circle - are selling the SaveAround Coupon Books again this year from October 1 thru December 15th.

The books are $25.00 each & can be purchased from any member of the group and will also be available for sale in the vestibule after Masses most weekends.

Books can also be purchased online and sent to family and friends, customized for use in their local regions. Go to www.supportourgrouops.com/GN/224193.

Be sure that group name, AVE Maria Circle appears on the screen when ordering. Call 315-493-1523 for questions & information. Thank you for your support!

November 10-11, 2018

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

“Not all of us can do great things, but we can do small things with great love.”

These endearing words of St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta remind us that we are all called to be saints and Christian stewards. We are called to receive God's gifts gratefully, to cultivate them responsibly, to share them in justice and love with others and to return them with increase to the Lord.

Jesus is calling each of us by name because He intends each one of us to use our unique gifts and talents to bring others and ourselves closer to the Kingdom of God.

This weekend is Stewardship Sunday in the Diocese of Ogdensburg. I encourage each of us to prayerfully reflect upon the gifts that God has chosen for you and me, asking ourselves: “How can I use my gifts and talents to serve my parish, community and God?”

I am grateful to the many women, men and children who are doing small things with great love in our parishes and communities. You are enriching the spiritual lives of your sisters and brothers in Christ by your ministry. Please also open your heart to encourage and invite others to join in your parish ministries. Many times, a kind word of encouragement will plant the seed of faith in others as we all answer God's call to serve.

Thank you for your active participation in the faith life of your parish. May God continue to bless the work of your hands and may His blessings be upon you and your family.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Terry R. LaValley
Bishop of Ogdensburg
