Augustinian Academy School News November 12, 2017

Thank you to Joanne and Mike Sligar who donated the prizes for the costume parade. They make this donation each year in memory of their son, Christopher. What a wonderful way to honor their son!

Fr. Lucia will visit Augustinian Academy on November 20th to speak about vocations. We are always asking the students: What is God calling you to do?

Registration for the Jingle Bell Run can be completed at facebook.com/caajinglebellrun Come join the fun on December 9th!

Altar Server practice will resume after the interior work is complete.

We will be closed for Thanksgiving from November 22-28.

St. James Brings Home the Gold

Fr. Robinson was awarded the VEM "Sole Award" in honor of St. James collecting the most money for the Annual Crop Walk on Oct. 29. It was a cool, rainy day but 12 walkers from St. James brought our total donation to $2004.35. One fourth of all monies collected remains at our local food pantry. Thank you to each and everyone who donated and especially to those who also walked..."ending hunger one step at a time". I am sure Fr. Robinson will be wearing his Gold Sneaker for all to see.

From the Pastor:

Today is Stewardship Sunday. Please read Bishop LaValley's fine letter printed in today's bulletin. Today you will be thrilled to know that I will devote much of my homily time reflecting on the financial status of both St. James and St. Mary's. A pastor is required to give a financial statement to his parishioners at least once a year and it is done on Stewardship Sunday. You will find a summary of each parish's annual Financial Report in today's bulletin.

Sadly, we said good-bye to Dr. Donald and Tina Foster a few weeks ago. They have moved to Saratoga Springs and we wish them the very best in their new home. Both were very involved here at St. James over the years. Donald served as a Parish Trustee for the past few years and I benefitted from his counsel. I have appointed Patrick Britton to serve as the new Parish Trustee to replace Don. Patrick has been involved here at St. James also and I am very pleased that Pat accepted my invitation to serve in this very important capacity.

The Carthage CROP WALK held a few weeks ago was very successful, thanks to your many generous donations. I broke all past records as I collected $1407.00 from my begging outside of the church on the 3 weekends leading up to the WALK. Other walkers from the parish also participated bringing the total from St. James (and St. Mary's) to over $2000.00!!!! THANKS FOR YOUR KINDNESS and SUPPORT.

If you are lucky enough to sit in a folding chair for Mass during the St. James interior renovation project, please know you DO NOT have to kneel on the dirty, hard floor during the Eucharistic Prayer. I am giving you permission to sit during that time of the Mass. God would understand and so does the pastor.

It is hard to believe that the Season of Advent is right around the corner. Don't forget that this weekend the members of the St. James Ave Maria Circle will take orders for Advent Wreaths for your home. Every home should have an Advent Wreath.

Something to ponder: Noah, from the Old Testament, was a brave man who set sail in a wooden boat that included at least 2 termites as passengers.

November 2017

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

"Christ has no body now on earth but yours, no hands but yours, no feet but yours. Yours are the eyes through which to look out Christ's compassion to the world. Yours are the feet with which he is to go about doing good. Yours are the hands with which he is to bless men now."

These beautiful words from St. Teresa of Avila remind us of our baptismal call to serve God and one another. Every parishioner contributes to the vitality of one's parish. Each of us is to be the hands and feet of Christ. Our talents, gifts and resources are uniquely our own, selected specifically for us by God. We, as stewards of these gifts, are called to accept His gifts with gratitude; to develop and nurture His gifts responsibly; to share His gifts with generosity and have a willingness to accept His call without counting the cost.

On this Stewardship Sunday, I ask you to prayerfully reflect upon your unique gifts and talents. I invite you to open your heart and ask yourself: "How will I respond to God's call? How can I use my gifts and talents to serve my parish, community and God? How can I be the hands and feet of Christ?"

I am thankful to the many women, men and children who serve in our parishes in a wide variety of ministries throughout the year. I encourage those who might be hesitant, to talk with your pastor about those ministries in your parish where you can participate. Please also take a moment to encourage and invite others to share in your parish ministries. Many times, a kind word of encouragement will plant the seeds of faith in others as we answer God's call to serve.

May God continue to bless the work of your hands and may His blessing be upon you and your family.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Terry R. LaValley
Bishop of Ogdensburg

Due to the interior renovations...the Angel Dusters will be dusting St. James on each Friday at 3:30pm. If you are able to help, it would be very much appreciated. Many hands make light work.
