WAYS TO BRING PEOPLE BACK TO CHURCH

Plant seeds. I love my Great Aunt Dee tremendously – she is with the good Lord now. Every single time that my Great Auntie would send me something in the mail, always with whatever she was sending me, a letter, or a card, was always a seed. She would send me a prayer card or a tract or a pamphlet or a CD or a book or a medal. She was constantly dropping grace bombs all over the place and we need to do the same to people who have fallen away. Stop by their house and have a cup of coffee and then say “Hey, here’s a book I was reading. I think you might enjoy it.” At the end of an email say, “Hey, I was thinking of you the other day when I listened to this video, thought you might enjoy it.” And then send them the YouTube link. It’s through dropping these “grace bombs” that we have the ability to evangelize but also to begin to open their minds to truth. Father Jonathan Meyer, Archdiocese of Indianapolis wrote an article of 7 steps to bring people back to church. Over the next several weeks, we will post a step.

St. James Christmas Giving Tree - Our Christmas Giving Tree helps children in our community have a Merry Christmas. It has been a tradition at St. James for over 40 years.

Please take a mitten tag from the tree, buy the item on the tag, wrap the gift, put the tag on the outside and return it to church by December 8th.

Thank you for helping our children have a Merry Christmas.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

The Catholic Church teaches the fundamental importance of paying workers a living wage that allows them to meet their basic needs. Cooperative businesses are co-owned by the employees, which gives workers greater say in how the business is run, including the wages and salaries that workers earn. Those principles animate the work of the organizations creating opportunities and fighting poverty with support from the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD).

Seed Commons is a New York City-based national network of community loan funds that make cooperative businesses easier to start and less expensive than obtaining bank loans. Based on a “nonextractive” model, Seed Commons does not require borrowers to make payments on interest or principal until they can cover operating expenses, including market-rate salaries. With support from CCHD, Seed Commons helps workers become cooperative owners who earn living wages at companies like a Chicago-based window manufacturer, which pays $2/hour more than it did before it became a cooperative. The employee-owners now earn not only higher wages but profit-sharing checks as well.

Your support of CCHD helps workers become worker-owners who earn living wages and establish economic roots in communities that badly need greater employment and earning opportunities. When you give to the CCHD collection, you help not only national networks like Seed Commons but also organizations working to end poverty within your diocese, where 25% of your contribution stays to create opportunities in your own neighborhood.

To learn more about the collection for the CCHD and the way CCHD upholds the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church, visit www.usccb.org/cchd.

2022-2023 GRANTS

2022 EXPENSES

*Internal grants include a distribution from the Catholic Campaign for Human Development Collection for CCHD operations expenses and for USCCB Justice, Peace and Human Development’s Education and Outreach program that includes engaging Catholics in our faith-filled call to address the root causes of poverty.

LEARN about those living in poverty who are working to improve their communities. • ACT and spread the word about poverty by sharing this flier. • CONNECT with the work of CCHD by supporting the collection. • PRAY for those who benefit from this collection.

CAMPAÑA CATÓLICA PARA EL DESARROLLO HUMANO TRABAJANDO DESDE LA PERIFERIA

La Iglesia Católica enseña la importancia fundamental de pagar a los trabajadores un sueldo digno que les permita satisfacer sus necesidades básicas. En el caso de las empresas cooperativas, los empleados son copropietarios, lo cual brinda a los trabajadores una mayor participación en la manera en que se maneja la empresa, incluyendo los sueldos y los salarios que ganan los trabajadores. Estos principios alientan la labor de las organizaciones, creando oportunidades y luchando contra la pobreza con el apoyo de la Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano (CCHD).

Seed Commons es una red nacional de fondos de préstamos comunitarios, situada en la ciudad de Nueva York, la cual facilita el inicio de empresas cooperativas y les resulta menos costoso que obtener préstamos bancarios. Seed Commons, basado en un modelo “no extractivo”, no les exige a los prestatarios que hagan sus pagos sobre los intereses y el principal hasta que ellos puedan cubrir sus gastos de operación, incluyendo salarios a tasa de mercado. Con el apoyo de CCHD, Seed Commons ayuda a los trabajadores a convertirse en propietarios de cooperativas los cuales ganan salarios dignos en empresas como la de un fabricante de ventanas con sede en Chicago, la cual les paga $2 más por hora que antes de convertirse en cooperativa. Los empleados-propietarios hoy ganan no solo sueldos más altos, sino que también reciben cheques por el reparto de utilidades.

El apoyo de ustedes a CCHD ayuda a los trabajadores a convertirse en trabajadores-propietarios que ganan sueldos dignos y establecen raíces económicas en comunidades que necesitan urgentemente mayores oportunidades de empleos y de ingresos. Cuando ustedes contribuyen a la colecta de CCHD, están ayudando no solo a redes nacionales como Seed Commons, sino también a organizaciones que trabajan para erradicar la pobreza dentro de su misma diócesis, en donde el 25% de sus contribuciones permanece allí para crear oportunidades en sus propias vecindades.

Para informarse más acerca de la colecta para CCHD y la forma en que CCHD defiende las enseñanzas morales y sociales de la Iglesia Católica, visiten www.usccb.org/cchd.

SUBVENCIONES 2022-2023

GASTOS EN EL 2022

*Las subvenciones internas incluyen una distribución de la Colecta de CCHD para los gastos de operación de CCHD y para el programa de educación y extensión de la USCCB para la Paz, la Justicia y el Desarrollo Humano, el cual incluye el compromiso de los católicos a nuestro llamado pleno de fe para abordar las causas raíz de la pobreza.

APRENDAN acerca de aquellos que viven en la pobreza y que trabajan para mejorar sus comunidades. • ACTÚEN y diseminen información sobre la pobreza compartiendo este folleto. • CONÉCTENSE con la labor de CCHD brindando su apoyo a la colecta. • OREN por los beneficiarios de esta colecta.

Everyday Stewardship

The ancient Greek dramatist, Euripides, wrote, "No one can confidently say that he will still be living tomorrow." We seldom focus on that reality and often act like we are confident of a tomorrow. However, we all know names of those who died suddenly, maybe in tragedy or simply in the quiet of sleep. Calling those names to mind will probably still not force most of us to contemplate our own mortality tonight before placing our head on the pillow, but perhaps it should.

We don't need to obsess about dying or fear the unknown, but realizing the gift of today and reflecting on the possibility that it may be our last day can cause us to act differently. We might forgive more easily, argue less, and embrace one another. Rather than procrastinate, we might act now. We could become more mindful of our surroundings, see the needs in people, and reach out to those who are lost.

I write these Everyday Stewardship reflections every Sunday. You might read them in your parish bulletin, on a website, or in social media every Sunday. Just in case this is the last Sunday you ever have a chance to read these reflections, what is God calling you to do now before it's too late. If you are still here next Sunday after taking all this seriously, you might wonder at what it was to live more fully and to give of yourself more freely. Don't let a single day pass you by without truly loving others and your God. One thing you can be confident about: This day will never come again.

--Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
