Augustinian Academy School News November 3, 2019

We want to thank the parishioners of St. James and St. Mary's for their generous contributions to the Bishop's Fund. We are very blessed to have received funds from the Tuition Assistance Program for 33 of our students. We are grateful to Bishop LaValley for providing this valuable program to assist families in our parish, and to the people of the Diocese of Ogdensburg for their generosity.

The students had a NED Assembly on Oct. 25th. This program had a powerful message for everyone, and it was presented through storytelling, a little magic, and some awesome yo-yo tricks!

Never give up through the power of "yet",
Encourage others to give them courage; and
Do your best so you can learn and grow

Do not forget our Veterans Day Luncheon on Friday, November 8th. All current military members and veterans are invited to join us for lunch between 11:15 - 12:15 in the school cafeteria! Call the school, or fill out the form in the bulletin to join the students so they can thank you for your service!

2019 NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

Nov 3-9, 2019

'Our Hearts Are Full'

The family of Tom and Katie Krug beam with pride at the ordination of oldest son, Fr. Jerome Krug, in Oklahoma City. "I would be proud of him whatever he did," said Tom. "But knowing he chose a higher calling, there are no words to express our joy... though I hear God telling me, 'This happiness isn't one tenth of the happiness of heaven!'" Tom encourages reluctant parents: "If your son is thinking about seminary, tell him to go! It's an ideal place to form strong young men."

INSPIRATION FOR PARENTS

Families: the Foundation for Vocations

An old Latin schoolmaster had the habit of entering the classroom and bowing to his pupils before the lesson. One day a boy asked why he showed such reverence to the young students. "Because I do not know who you may be one day," answered the old teacher. "Some of you may grow up to be presidents or generals, perhaps even popes or saints. I do not bow to who you are today, but to who you may become."

Who might your child or grandchild become? A leader who solves a political crisis? A researcher who discovers a life-saving cure? What about a priest who heals souls? Or a brother who serves the forgotten?

Your attitude toward your child's vocation has a huge impact. Many priests and sisters say: "Growing up our family prayed together.... We served others as a family... My parents often had clergy and religious over for dinner."

The influence of parents may actually be getting stronger. Oprah Magazine ran an article on new research showing that millennials feel closely connected with their parents, with 77% seeking their parents' advice on a regular basis.

If your son or daughter should express interest in becoming a priest, sister, or brother, they'll be watching closely for your reaction. It may be awkward to bow, but in your own way, express reverence for what they may become.

Pope John Paul II speaks of 'vocation' more than 30 times in his famous encyclical on the family, Familiaris Consortio, calling family "the primary and most excellent seed-bed of vocations."

"I would like to speak into the ears of so many men and women: giving up one's children to the service of God is not a sacrifice: it is an honor and a joy." -St. Josemaria Escriva

The growing clergy shortage means that priestly presence is waning in many Catholic institutions, especially high schools and colleges. Even Vocation Directors, whose job is to help young people discern God's call, often find themselves with one or two (or more!) additional assignments. More than ever, the Church needs lay people, especially families, to encourage the next generation of vocations.

"I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth." ~3 John 4

'I get to be the priest this time!'

Did you know that according to canon law, impersonating a priest disqualifies a man from ever being ordained?

But not if you're a little kid, of course. Moms and dads who have videos of toddlers elevating Ritz crackers as "hosts" can rest easy. (Have you seen the YouTube video of the four-year-old having a tantrum because his brother assigned him to be the deacon at a makeshift "Mass" in their living room? "But I can't even reeeead!" he wailed.)

Children have pretended to celebrate Mass for literally centuries, and why not? It's a way of emulating one's heroes. Think of the third-grader in a Tom Brady jersey throwing a football, or the son of a police officer driving a toy cruiser.

Kids playing Mass at home has an added benefit: they often pay more attention at church! A variety of children's Mass kits are available at sites like www.agnusdei.us.

Play has a deeper meaning, of course. It's a way of preparing for the real world. And because our world needs God's mercy so much, why not nudge your kids (or grandkids) to get out the crackers and grape juice?

One Minute Meditations

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini

The youngest of thirteen children, St.

Frances was born to Augustine and Stella Cabrini in Lombardy, Italy. She was turned away from two religious orders because of her frail health, so instead, she founded her own order, the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. In all, she founded 67 institutions to care for the sick and forgotten in Europe and the Americas. Mother Cabrini died in Chicago and was the first U.S. citizen to be canonized.

A roomful of friends

Learning about the saints is like walking into a large room full of strangers. You scan the faces looking for a friendly one who beckons you over. Find ways to scan the sea of saints looking for the ones with whom you would like to become friends.

"Since Christ Himself has said, 'This is my Body' who shall dare to doubt that it is his Body?"
(St. Cyril of Jerusalem)

Count blessings with a thankful heart

Gratitude for God's blessings is one of the most distinctive marks of those of us who follow him. An ungrateful heart leads to dissatisfaction and despair but a true spirit of thankfulness restores contentment and joy. November is a time to count our blessings as children of God.

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his mercy endures forever" (Psalm 118:29). No matter how we stray, forgiveness and mercy are ours for the asking when we are truly sorry.

"The Lord is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him" (Lamentations 3:25). Hope is believing that God will keep his promises. This virtue helps us to place our trust in God and receive his gifts with gratitude.

"I can do all things in him who strengthens me" (Philippians 4:13). The strength we need most doesn't begin in our bodies but deep in our souls. The fatigue we feel physically reminds us of how quickly our hearts can wander and fail. The virtue of wisdom prompts us to ask God to strengthen faith more often than we ask him to strengthen the body.

"And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful" (Colossians 3:15).

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics celebrate feast days?

Every family has significant events to celebrate yearly: birthdays, graduations, anniversaries. Feast days are the Catholic Church's family events. Many feast days celebrate events in the lives of Jesus and Mary, such as the Annunciation, the Immaculate Conception, or Jesus' Baptism. Other feast days celebrate the saints as role models of holiness (Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), #1173). Celebrating feasts give us a break from regular life. The Church is a big family so there's always something to celebrate.

Love can make us saints

It is very Catholic to admire the saints but think that we can't measure up to them. In fact, they were ordinary people made extraordinary by their love for God. If they can do it, we can, too.

St. Francis of Assisi started out as a careless rich boy. God had to knock him off his feet with a deadly illness to get his attention. For the rest of his life, Francis denied God nothing. Great are the rewards when we love God without limit.

St. Augustine caused his mother years of heartache with his immorality, paganism, and disregard for holiness. Through her prayers and the guidance of St. Ambrose, Augustine became transformed. His love for God made him a new man.

St. Ignatius was a womanizer, loved fancy clothes, and used his position to avoid consequences. A battle injury forced Ignatius into a long recovery during which he only had religious texts to read. He fell in love with Jesus and devoted the rest of his life to serving God.

from Scripture

Luke 23:35-43, The true King

This Gospel passage seems at first to contradict the feast on which it is read – the Solemnity of Christ the King. When we think of a king, we think of a man robed in splendor, seated on a throne of power and crowned in majesty.

Yet, Jesus, in this reading, has been abandoned by his friends, condemned by powerful politicians, subjected to terrible tortures, and left for dead. This is not our traditional view of a king.

Yet this is when Jesus is at his most powerful. It's in this moment, when he is shouldering the sins of the whole human race and restoring God's grace to us, that he is the most glorious. He is the only king with that kind of power.

Christ isn't an earthly king: he is the King of Heaven, King of the Universe. On Calvary, he opened the gates of Heaven for us. The crowds jeered at him and told him to prove his divinity by saving himself. Instead, he revealed his divine love by saving us. He is the King of our hearts.

Feasts & Celebrations

November 1 – All Saints Day. In the early Church, there was a great desire to celebrate the martyrs by assigning each a feast day. However, the Christian persecutions were so horrible that there weren't enough days in the calendar for individual commemorations. Pope Gregory IV designated Nov. 1 as All Saints Day.

November 11 – St. Martin of Tours (397). The patron of soldiers, St. Martin was forced to join the army, but he left to become a priest. He founded a monastery near Poitiers, France, and later became bishop of Tours.

November 23 – St. Clement I (1st century). Arrested by the Emperor Trajan for converting members of the nobility, Pope St. Clement I was sent to work in the mines in the Crimea. He comforted and encouraged the other Christians there until his martyrdom.

November 24 – Solemnity of Christ the King. God promised his people a king who would triumph over their enemies. Jesus is our King. In Baptism and Confirmation, we are brought under his kingship.

Q & A What is the "Communion of Saints"?

The Church is a much larger family than we may realize. The "Communion of Saints" includes all the saints in heaven and those still journeying to heaven. This includes those baptized faithful on Earth and the souls in Purgatory. The Communion of Saints is the Church as the Body of Christ.

"[As] all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ" (1 Corinthians 12:12). This means we can help each other by offering intercessory prayers and sacrifices. The saints in Heaven pray for us on Earth. We pray for the souls in Purgatory, who pray for us (CCC, #947). God is perfectly able to help us by himself, yet he generously involves us — including the saints — in carrying out his plans.

The Communion of Saints is not a "club for the holy elites." It is actually the biggest, fastest, most effective support network in the universe. No matter where we are, there are people praying for us, encouraging us, and caring for us.

Serving those who serve

Dear Friend in Christ,

The next National Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS), is scheduled for the weekend of 10 November 2019 (unless an alternate date has been selected by a particular diocese). The AMS receives no funding from the U.S. Government or the U.S. Military, has no parishes for a weekly in-pew collection, and must rely principally on private donations to fund an annual operating budget of over $8.2 million.

Established by Saint John Paul II in 1985, the AMS is responsible for providing the full range of pastoral ministries available in all other U.S. dioceses to those serving in the United States Armed Services, enrolled in U.S. Military Academies, undergoing treatment at any of the 153 Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers, working in civilian jobs for the federal government beyond U.S. borders, and for the families of these populations. In other words, the AMS is responsible for the pastoral care of men, women, and children from all U.S. dioceses, who hail from all 50 States and U.S. Territories - including members of your own parish.

I am grateful to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops for its approval of the National Collection taken in most dioceses every three years, the first in November 2013, and again in 2016. Funds received from the 2013 and 2016 National Collections provided the means necessary for this Archdiocese to continue to provide the same pastoral care readily available to the almost 1.8 million AMS faithful spread across the globe who serve and who face constant transition and uncertainty. The funds also made possible several new and important initiatives, including the first-ever Catholic military marriage enrichment retreat and widespread certification of catechists at their installations; to begin to build an endowment with a long-term goal of assuring a self-sustaining source of funding; and to continue to underwrite the Co-Sponsored Seminarian Program which provides priests to serve in dioceses across the U.S., and to serve as full-time Catholic military chaplains.

Please help me continue to provide priests for the Church and the military chaplaincy and to minister to the Catholic military men and women, and their families, who are part of this global Archdiocese – parishioners and families from your diocese – with a donation to the 2019 Triennial National Collection for the AMS.

With sentiments of unwavering gratitude, I remain

Sincerely in Christ,

(The Most Reverend) Timothy P. Broglio, J.C.D.
Archbishop for the Military Services, USA

From the Pastor:

Today we begin National Vocation Awareness Week. Please note the important insert in today's bulletin. Please continue to pray each day for more vocations to the priesthood and the consecrated life – especially here in the Diocese of Ogdensburg.

Next Sunday we will celebrate Stewardship Sunday. You will be thrilled to know that I will devote much of my homily time next week reflecting on the financial status of both St. James and St. Mary's.

Yesterday was All Souls Day and it is a wonderful time to remember all of our deceased loved ones. At all the Masses this weekend we will remember in a special way all those who have died from St. James and St. Mary's since last All Souls Day. ETERNAL RISE GRANT UNTO THEM, O LORD!

It is hard to believe that the Season of Advent is right around the corner. Don't forget that next weekend the members of the St. James Ave Maria Circle will take orders for Advent Wreaths for your home. Every home should have an Advent Wreath.

Don't forget to VOTE on Tuesday – it is our civic and moral duty!

With the cold and flu season upon us and because the pastor suffers from germ-phobia, we will dispense with the Handshake of Peace for the next few months. In place of the Sign of Peace, we will pray for peace in our hearts, our homes, our neighborhoods and in the World! We surely need peace in the crazy world we live in, especially right now.

Today we have the ability to support the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS). The AMS serves those who serve or have served this nation with distinction as members of the U.S. military. The Collection provides access to the Gospel, the sacraments and other forms of spiritual support to the men and women of the U.S. Armed Forces around the world and to veterans in VA Medical Centers. Please prayerfully consider a generous contribution to this special triennial collection approved by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops in 2012 and last taken in 2016.

A parent told me this recently: It is amazing how quickly the kids learn to drive a car, yet are unable to understand the lawn mower, snow blower and vacuum cleaner!

Fund raiser for St James Food Pantry! Cocktails & Canvases will be doing an evening of painting in the St James Community Room on Tuesday November 12 from 5-7 PM. NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY! Cost is $35 per person and this includes all painting equipment and light snacks & wine. Jade Avallone

Reynolds, the artist, gives back a percentage of every person's fee to the pantry! Prepayment is required and we are limited to 40 painters. Checks can be made out to Jade Reynolds and mailed to P.O. Box 20, Hammond, NY 13646 or given to Julie Laureano, co-host. No refunds 24 hours prior to the event. Any questions can be directed to Julie at 315-777-0472.

PLEASE BRING A NON-PERISHABLE FOOD ITEM (boxed dressing, boxed potatoes, cranberry sauce, canned veggies or fruit, peanut butter or whatever) to have your name put in a drawing for a gift certificate for another painting night!

The "elf legs" that will be painted will become a part of your Christmas decorating for years to come. Plus it's so much fun!

Good Samaritan Society - Will meet on Nov. 4 at 6pm in the St. James Community Room. We will be planning for our Thanksgiving and Christmas Baskets. Please try to attend
