We are two diverse communities of faith who are united in bringing the Gospel into the daily lives of all who worship with us. We stand together with all people, especially the poor and the alienated, as a sign of God's universal love for all people. We extend a warm welcome to all and hope that you will find the parishes of St. James and St. Mary's places where faith can be nourished.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

The U.S. bishops are joining together in a commitment of prayer and reparation leading up to the bishops' General Assembly, in Baltimore November 11-15, where we will be making critical decisions in response to the clergy sexual abuse crisis. With my brother bishops across the nation, I will be dedicating myself to seven days of intensified prayer and fasting, from Monday, November 5, through Sunday, November 11. The intentions for this period of prayer and sacrifice are three-fold:

- For the healing and support of all victims of clergy sexual abuse;
- For the conversion and just punishment of perpetrators and concealers of sexual abuse; and
- For the strength of the bishops to be holy shepherds in protecting and leading our faithful from all harm.

You are welcome to join me in praying for these intentions. I would also be grateful for any prayers for my brother bishops and me during our General Assembly, that we may follow the guidance of the Holy Spirit in responding to the tragedy of clergy sexual abuse in the Church.

Please know of my continued prayers for you and your loved ones.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Terry R. LaValley,
Bishop of Ogdensburg

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

Needed: Men of Heroic Virtue

An Irish priest in America once told the story of how he was recruited from his native land. A bishop from Western Europe came to his seminary, which trained men for the missions, and painted a picture of comfortable rectories in a beautiful, peaceful country dotted with grand basilicas. Another bishop, from the American South, promised something different: remote, rural parishes, barely adequate rectories, few Catholics, and an oppressively hot climate. The Irish priest said that he and nearly every other classmate chose the latter.

Real men rise to challenges. And the Church needs brave men to answer the call to the priesthood. Being a priest should never be a vocation of last resort for men who could not marry or “make it” in the world. It is a vocation for strong men who love Jesus, who are striving for virtue and purity, and who are willing to lay down their lives for His Bride, the Church.

Thankfully, despite the very grave failings of too many clergy, the Church in America has some 40,000 priests, the vast majority of whom serve their people faithfully. During Vocation Awareness Week, let’s pray for our faithful priests—and encourage promising young men in our parishes to seriously consider the priesthood.

Modern-Day Martyr

Europe’s First 21st-Century martyr, Fr. Jacques Hamel, was murdered by Islamic militants on July 26, 2016 while celebrating Mass in France. His last words before being murdered were, “Begone, Satan!” which are inscribed in Latin in this painting by Philadelphia artist Neilson Carlin.

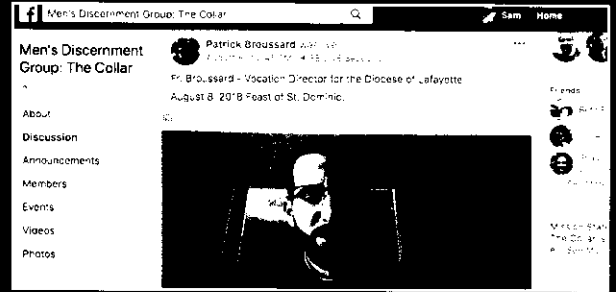

GRACE

ABOUNDS ALL THE MORE”

“Keep watch over yourselves and over the whole flock... I know that after my departure savage wolves will come among you, and they will not spare the flock. And from your own group, men will come forward perverting the truth to draw the disciples away after them. So be vigilant. Remember that for three years, night and day, I unceasingly admonished each of you with tears.” ~Acts 20:28-32

FROM SOCIAL MEDIA

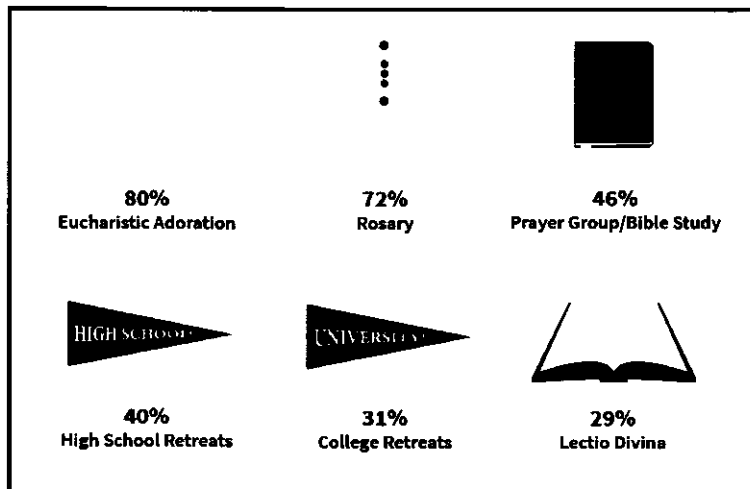

Discernment Group on Facebook

The phenomenon of “discernment groups” has become widespread in recent years because of their effectiveness in supporting young people. For those who can't join in person, there are two new Facebook groups: “The Collar” for men and “The Veil” for women. Just message to join, where you'll find Facebook live videos, group chat, and more. All to help men and women figure out God's call!

Prayer Practices of Future Priests

Figuring out one's vocation is rarely easy. The most essential element of discernment is forming a loving relationship with God through prayer. Thus it's no surprise that a 2017 CARA survey of recently ordained priests revealed a rich and diverse prayer life before they entered seminary, as the chart below shows.

This prayer life intensifies when men enter the seminary. They attend daily Mass and pray together the Liturgy of the Hours, and many seminarians now have community Holy Hours as well. All seminarians have a spiritual director who “coaches” them in their prayer life and spiritual formation.

CLOISTERED LIFE

Many cloistered communities are unknown to the world, and even unfamiliar to Catholics. A stunning new website brings exposure to the powerful “hidden” vocation of nuns and monks: cloisteredlife.com

YouTube: Christmas at the Convent

“My most memorable Christmas was during my novitiate in Chicago,” shared Sr. Josephine Garrett in a YouTube video. “As a native Texas girl, I had never been that cold before! Plus it was hard to be away from family. But one night I was walking back from Holy Hour, and I saw the snow glistening and glittering, and it was so beautiful... it seemed like a Christmas miracle. It made me realize that God really is Emmanuel, ‘God with us.’ He’s a part of everything in our lives.” Sister Josephine is one of the newest members of the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth.

Rev. Donald Robinson, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. Gertrude the Great

Born in 1256 in Germany, St. Gertrude was raised and educated by the Benedictine nuns.

Eventually, St. Gertrude became a nun herself. When she was about twenty-six, she began having visions of Christ, which continued until her death. She recorded them in a book called the Herald of Divine Love for her fellow nuns. She was known for her personal holiness, her kindness to the rich and poor, and her prayers for the souls in Purgatory.

Roomful of friends

Learning about the saints is like walking into a room full of strangers. You scan the faces looking for a friendly one who beckons you over. Scan the saintly faces until you find one with whom you would like to become friends.

"Only the one who can see hope in death can also lead a life of hope."

Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger (Pope Benedict XVI), Images of Hope: Meditations on Major Feasts

Stewardship is about love, not money

When you hear "stewardship," do you think, "fundraising?"

In fact, real stewardship is about love. When we practice good stewardship, we become more fulfilled, have a greater sense of purpose, and live happier lives. And while it's not just about money, good stewards have all the money they need.

Good stewards are motivated by love. Strong families come together and are formed in love. Loving family stewards put the needs of members first before spending time or money on anything else, especially themselves.

In God's family, we also come together in his love to care for each other. As stewards, we find ways to use our time and gifts to meet the needs of God's family through our parish.

Good stewards lend their strength. Take stock of the gifts you have: faith, wisdom, prosperity, energy, etc. Then ask where you can put your talents and resources to work for your parish so you can take your place at God's table. When you do, you will make God's family stronger and healthier.

Good stewards show gratitude. Practicing good stewardship means understanding that God has generously given us gifts which we, in turn, use for his purpose. Everything we have and everything we are comes from God. He deserves the best we have to give. What God wants most is our love.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics attend Mass on holy days of obligation?

Just as many families gather to celebrate major life events, so does the Catholic Church when she requires Catholics to celebrate certain feast days by attending Mass together. These feasts include: Christmas, Mary's Immaculate Conception, Easter, and Christ's Ascension and the Assumption of Mary into Heaven. All Sundays—in honor of Easter Sunday—are also holy days of obligation for the same reasons. The other holy days are listed on the website of the US Conference of Catholic Bishops: <http://www.usccb.org>.

"Be not afraid"

When someone we love is dying, we may want to help but don't know what to do. We can feel powerless. Yet when they are transitioning from this life to the next, we can make a significant difference to our loved ones.

Bring love. Jesus never turned away from the sick and dying. He always had a loving hand to comfort them and their families. Sometimes just holding a hand says more than words.

Bring attention. Ask him stories about his life. Let him know he has inspired you. You'll treasure these moments after he is gone.

Bring comfort. Remind her how much God loves her and is waiting to welcome her. Encourage her to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick.

Bring peace. Although someone may lose his ability to speak, he can still hear. Pray out loud, read from scripture or a favorite book.

Bring strength. When someone is leaving this world, fear can be overwhelming. Remind her of Jesus' words, "Be not afraid."

from Scripture

John 18:33b-37, Christ, the real King

Throughout the years of slavery and oppression, God's promise of a triumphant Israelite king kept hope alive. Many clung to the image of an avenging savior who would destroy their enemies and make Israel a nation to be feared.

Jesus, bound, beaten and seemingly powerless before Pilate, the powerful Roman governor, was not what they had in mind. They didn't want a king who talked of love, suffering, and service; they wanted one who would wipe their enemies off the face of the earth. They wanted Jesus to come down off the Cross. Yet it was his sacrifice of love on the Cross that conquered the real enemies of sin and death.

Jesus is King and he has a Kingdom, but as he teaches Pilate and us, his power is not of this world. His kingdom is about peace, justice and care for the poor, the needy and the marginalized in society.

Do our lives and actions reflect that awareness? As Christians we are challenged to become more "Christ-like" in our lives, and that means more like Jesus the King.

Q & A

Who are the Church Fathers?

The Church Fathers were the early Christian writers and teachers of the faith who lived after the Apostles and preserved and handed on their teachings. At the Last Supper, Jesus told his Apostles, "[The Holy Spirit] will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you"

(John 14:26). This collection of teachings—called Tradition—was handed on by the Apostles to their followers, the Church Fathers.

The Church Fathers include bishops, writers, thinkers, and martyrs. The most important thing the Fathers did, and why we still look to them today, is that they preserved "the written proof" of what the Apostles taught and handed on. By the grace of the Holy Spirit, on essential points of doctrine, the Fathers agreed with each other and with the Apostles on principles such as Jesus' divinity and humanity, Mary's sinlessness, and the Eucharist as the Body of Christ. Thanks to the Church Fathers, we can know what the Church believed—and still believes to this day.

Feasts & Celebrations

Nov. 1 – All Saints Day. A Holy Day of Obligation when Catholics are required to attend Mass, we commemorate people of extraordinary virtue who have gone before us to live eternally in the presence of God.

Nov. 2 – All Souls Day. This day we pray for the dead, especially our loved ones and the souls in Purgatory. Our prayers and sacrifices can help them get to Heaven faster.

Nov. 10 – Leo the Great (461). A native of Rome, St. Leo was elected pope while on a mission in Gaul. As pope, he defended the faith from heresy and worked for the unity of the Church. He also protected Rome from being destroyed by Attila the Hun and later by the barbarians.

Nov. 12 – St. Josaphat (1623). Born in Lithuania, St. Josaphat, the Ruthenian Archbishop of Pototsk, made the unpopular choice to bring his diocese into communion with the Catholic Church. He suffered persecution by a schismatic party and was eventually martyred by an angry mob.

From the Pastor:

Today we begin National Vocation Awareness Week. Please note the important insert in today's bulletin. Please continue to pray each day for more vocations to the priesthood and the consecrated life – especially here in the Diocese of Ogdensburg.

Next Sunday we will celebrate Stewardship Sunday. You will be thrilled to know that I will devote much of my homily time next week reflecting on the financial status of both St. James and St. Mary's.

This past Friday was All Souls Day and it is a wonderful time to remember all of our deceased loved ones. At all the Masses this weekend we will remember in a special way all those who have died from St. James and St. Mary's since last All Souls Day. Eternal Day Grant Unto Them O Lord.

ST. MARY'S PARISHIONERS: Today is called Commitment Weekend for our Capital Campaign. Please prayerfully consider making a pledge that can be fulfilled over the next 4 years. If you brought your personalized pledge card to Mass today, there will be a special collection for them. If not, you will find pledge envelopes in the pews. They can also be filled out today during Mass time.

It is hard to believe that the Season of Advent is right around the corner. Don't forget that next weekend the members of the St. James Ave Maria Circle will take orders for Advent Wreaths for your home. Every home should have an Advent Wreath.

Mark your calendar: The 2019 Rosary Crusade will be May 17/18, 2019! The 2019 St. James Fair will June 20, 21, 22, 2019!

Don't forget to VOTE on Tuesday – it is our civic and moral duty!

Bishop LaValley will make his annual visit to Augustinian Academy on Thursday. He will celebrate a 9:30am Mass for the school community. You are also invited to participate if your schedule allows it. Come out and welcome our Bishop. Everyone will be on their best behavior (including the pastor).

Seen on a bumper sticker: IF 10% OF MY INCOME IS GOOD ENOUGH FOR GOD, WHY ISN'T IT GOOD ENOUGH FOR THE IRS?

The Ladies of the AVE Maria Circle - are selling the SaveAround Coupon Books again this year from October 1 thru December 15th.

The books are $25.00 each & can be purchased from any member of the group and will also be available for sale in the vestibule after Masses most weekends.

Books can also be purchased online and sent to family and friends, customized for use in their local regions. Go to www.supportourgrouops.com/GN/224193.

Be sure that group name, AVE Maria Circle appears on the screen when ordering. Call 315-493-1523 for questions & information. Thank you for your support!

Ave Maria Circle - members will take orders for Advent Wreaths after Masses on November 3/4, 10/11 & 17/18. Wreaths may be picked up the weekend of December 1/2. Cost of wreaths are $8 or candles only $4. Please plan to pay when placing orders. Wreaths will be made on November 30 in the small community room. You are welcome to come and learn how to make your own if interested in this great family project. No experience required!
